

Did you know you can do your banking essentials at the Post Office?

Let's go forward

If you have a personal or business account with us, you can do the following at your local Post Office.

Withdrawing cash using your card and PIN
Paying in cash using your card and PIN
Check your balance using your card and PIN
Paying in cheques using a pre-printed paying-in slip and deposit envelope

Many Post Offices also have cash machines, so you can withdraw money and check your balance there.

If there are any charges, it'll say so on screen.

How it works

Viewing your balance, withdrawing money and paying in

You can check your balance, withdraw cash and pay money into your account at the Post Office counter. Depositing cash via your card will clear the same working day. The staff will ask you to confirm it's your account by putting your card into the reader and entering your PIN.

If you don't have a debit card and PIN, we can arrange for you to withdraw up to £100 per day at specific Post Offices.

Talk to us today to learn more about how to withdraw and pay in cash.¹

Whatever you do, the Post Office will be able to provide a full receipt.

Cheques

To pay cheques in at the Post Office, you'll need a pre-printed paying-in slip and a cheque deposit envelope. Fill in all of the details and hand it to the Post Office staff. Cheques deposited this way will take 2 days to reach your account.

You'll find pre-printed paying-in slips at the back of your chequebook. You can order them and the envelopes by calling 0800 169 3091 or by speaking to us in branch. This is the only way to get the correct slips – you can't get them at the Post Office.

If this way of banking doesn't suit you, talk to us in branch today, or go online to barclays.co.uk/ways-to-bank (or for Business customers, it's barclays.co.uk/business-banking/ways-to-bank).

You can get this in Braille, large print or audio format by calling 0800 400 100 (via Text Relay or Next Generation Text Service if appropriate). You can also call us via SignVideo – visit barclays.co.uk/signvideo
